

Elena Frutos, piano

Elena Frutos did her bachelor's degree at the Superior Conservatory of Aragon, where she received the best honors for her final degree project. She finished her master in piano performance from the Reina Sofia School of Music in Madrid in 2018, where she studied with professor Galina Eguiazarova. Her Majesty Queen Sofia awarded her the diploma to the most outstanding student of her chair in 2017.

She is now teaching at the Katarina Gurska Music School in Madrid, and the Superior Conservatory of Castilla y Leon. She has been awarded in numerous piano competitions as the Vicente Scaramuzza Prize in 2017, the First Prize and Prize to Musicality in the Marisa Montiel Competition, and the Special Prize of the Jury in the Rio Orbigo competition.

She has played as a soloist with the Symphonic Orchestra of Castilla y Leon conducted by Alejandro Posada, the Goya Symphonic Orchestra conducted by Miguel Rodrigo, the CSMA Philharmonic Orchestra and the Centro Integrado Orchestra in San Lorenzo de El Escorial. She has performed solo piano and chamber music recitals in many halls in Spain, Netherlands, France and Austria. She has played in concert series and festivals such as the Musica en el Instante in Madrid, the Piano Meeting Festival in Ourense, Casa Espriu in Barcelona and the Rafael Orozco piano festival in Cordoba, the series AIE Clasicos en Ruta with the Esferas Quartet.
